

Country specific update

Template sent to each participant to collect most recent and relevant updates regarding local (country) DP topics.

Timing: 0min, Printout available at sessions

Session 1: 09³⁰–11⁰⁰ (90min)

The Extraterritorial Scope of Data Protection Laws: Challenges of Global Enforcement

Contributor: Gabriela Espinosa (Mexico)

Input: This short input explores the practical implications of local laws such as the GDPR in the EU on other countries. Specific focus may be placed on regulatory strategies for cross-border enforcement and legal risk mitigation strategies for multinational companies.

Discussion: Followed by a short discussion amongst all participants on enforcement trends and corporate strategies for cross-jurisdictional compliance.

Timing: Input: 5min, Discussion: 15min, Total: 20min

The Protection of Children’s Privacy Rights in the Digital Age

Contributor: Alexia Kountouri (Cyprus)

Input: Legal developments around age verification, obligations of online platforms, parental responsibilities, and regulatory approaches to AI-related child protection in various jurisdictions.

Discussion: Inviting cross-border views on regulatory thresholds and cultural sensitivities in children’s privacy.

Timing: Input: 10min, Discussion: 10min, Total: 20min

An Overview of PRC Data Laws and Enforcement Trends

Contributor: David Tang (China)

Input: This briefing covers the current regulatory landscape in China, highlighting recent enforcement actions, sector-specific requirements, and practical considerations for multinational entities engaging with the PRC.

Discussion: An open Q&A session, supplemented with a compliance checklist comparison for companies operating globally.

Timing: Input: 15min, Q&A: 5min, Total: 20min

Cross-Jurisdictional Reflections on Data Breach Enforcement: The Irish Experience

Contributor: Aoife Coll (Ireland)

Input: This presentation focus on recent enforcement actions by the Irish Data Protection Commission, exploring the legal reasoning behind the decisions and their implications for controllers and processors.

Discussion: Dialogue with attendees sharing national enforcement trends and doctrinal approaches.

Timing: Input: 15min, Q&A: 5min, Total: 20min

Session 2: 11¹⁵–12³⁰ (75min)

Update of all IA legal initiative of the LATAM region

Contributor: Rodrigo Velasco Alessandri (Chile)

Input: This briefing covers the current IA legal initiatives in LATAM

Discussion: An open Q&A session, supplemented with a compliance checklist comparison for companies operating globally.

Timing: Input: 10min, Q&A: 5min, Total: 15min

Advanced Risk Management Models in Data Protection: The Transition Beyond ISO Standards

Contributor: Arianna Sáenz (Ecuador)

Input: This presentation on this transition from ISO 29134 to the new approaches promoted by the authority, showing how models like FAIR and and Monte Carlo simulations work in practice for data protection.

Timing: Input: 15min, Q&A: 5min, Total: 25min

The Lifecycle of AI Systems and Data Protection: Practical Implications under the EU AI Act

Contributor: Peter Hense (Germany)

Input: A legal walkthrough on data protection duties arising during the AI lifecycle, including training data curation, model deployment, and decommissioning, with reference to the compliance requirements under the EU AI Act.

Timing: Input: 20min, Q&A: 5min, Total: 25min

INPLP Conference Location 2026

Contributors: Vikram Jeet Singh (India) & Bob Cordemeyer (Netherlands)

Input: 2x 5min presentations of the two candidates for 2026

Timing: Input: 10min, Q&A: 0min, Total: 10min